The concert given by the Goddard Male Quartette assisted by J. Ward Carver, reader, in the Congregational church last evening under the auspices of the ladies of the church was attended by a large audience. The concert was one of the best entertainments that has been given at the church during the past year and was thoroughly enjoyed by those present. The solos and readings were especially well received and an encore was required for nearly every selection.

The social given by the Granite City orchestra in the I. O. G. T. hall last evening was a great success and largely attended. The hall was prettily decorated with Nile green bunting. At a booth arranged with Indian curtains and Japanese fans a fruit punch bowl gave good service. The orchestra was assisted by Miss Ailie Richardson, reading; Miss Ethel Strong, readings; Miss Kate Mathieson, vocal solo; Misses Ingalls and Cole, piano duet. We wish to thank all those who assisted us in our concert and especially the Neal Dow lodge for tendering the use of their hall and for their cordial patronage. Granite City Orchestra.
